If you don't

Miss Klumpke Honored in San Francisco.

The arrival in San Francisco of a world-famed figure has given a new zest and interest to club life this last week. The coming of Miss Anna Klumpke, artist and biographer of Rosa Bonheur, has marked an event in the women's organizations, for Miss Klumpke was an honored guest at two of the most brilliant affairs of the week.

The Pacific Coast Women's Press Association made Miss Klumpke their guest of honor on Monday when several hundred women attended a reception given in compliment to her. On Wednesday Miss Klumpke received the greetings of several hundred more women who were members and guests of Laurel Hill Club, of which she is a member. The Press Association claims Miss Klumpke as one of its members also.

Professional speakers, women who speak on all occasions, have almost ceased to be entertaining at an average club meeting, but at the Press Association reception Miss Klumpke gave one of the most thoroughly delightful talks that San Francisco club women have ever heard. She smilingly announced that that was her second appearance as a public speaker and she begged the indulgence of her audience if she lapsed into a conversational tone. But not one word of her talk was lost, for it was far too interesting to be let pass without every effort to hear.

Miss Klumpke was the intimate friend and confidante of Rosa Bonheur, and at the request of that famous artist painted her portrait, which in Paris, makes her home in Rosa Bonheur's home, which was willed to the California artist by Miss Bonheur at the time of the latter's death.

Miss Klumpke has left everything just as it was in the home, even to the unfinished picture of the "Nine Horses," which was standing on the studio easel. Interesting lights on the character and life of Rosa Bonheur were presented by Miss Klumpke in her talk. A number of Rosa Bonheur's paintings were pictured for the audience at the conclusion of Miss Klumpke's talk.

Not less appreciated were the half-dozen or so pictures painted by Miss Klumpke, which were also shown.

San Francisco has a way of "welcoming home" notables with surprising frequency, but it is not often that there is so much delightful sincerity and such warmth of welcome as has been afforded to Miss Klumpke, who seemed to delight in being home quite as much as home does in having her.—San Francisco Examiner.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. Sarah C. Moore announces the engagement of her daughter, Mrs. Cecilia M. Haskins, to Mr. J. B. Lightfoot of Honolulu. Mrs. Haskins was born in San Francisco and educated at Irving Institute. Mr. Lightfoot is an attorney in Honolulu.

Miss Kathleen Walker and Miss Sophie Walker will leave in the Wilhelmina next Wednesday for San Francisco, where they remain for several months. They will visit friends until the Christmas holidays and then will attend Heald's Business College.

Mrs. S. F. Flack, who was in Honolulu some time ago, returned in the Wilhelmina yesterday and will visit her son, Mr. William Flack, who is connected with the O. R. & L. Co.

Mrs. R. P. Spalding arrived in the Wilhelmina yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. G. Campbell of Hilo are now in Honolulu and will make their home on Thurston avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hedemann returned to Honolulu yesterday evening in the Wilhelmina after having spent two months on the mainland.

Mrs. W. W. Goodale was a home coming passenger in the Wilhelmina yesterday. Mrs. Goodale left for the coast a short time ago to place her son in school.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Sorenson (Juliet Hartwell) returned to Honolulu in the Wilhelmina yesterday after having spent several months on the mainland. It will be remembered that Miss Hartwell and Mr. Sorenson were married in the early part of June.

Mrs. Henry Lyman of Kapoho arrived in Honolulu in the Wilhelmina yesterday. Mrs. Lyman will leave for Kapoho, Hawaii, in a few days.

CHURCHES WILL WORK AGAINST 'WHITE PLAGUE'

One of the largest religio-civic meetings that have ever been held in Honolulu is being planned for the Bijou theater next Sunday evening, of which the motive will be "Christianity and Community Health." With a view to civic betterment the churches, by the Inter-Church Federation, will take steps toward the sanitation of the city and particularly the fight against tuberculosis, which will be the main theme of the speakers.

The two principal speakers of the evening will be Dr. A. N. Sinclair, director of and administrative officer of the Anti-Tuberculosis League, superintendent of Leahi Home and perhaps the best authority on tuberculosis in Honolulu, and James A. Rath, headworker of Palama Settlement. The meeting will be presided over by Governor Frear. The addresses will be illustrated by stereopticon views and the music for the evening will be furnished by the Kamehameha Glee Club under the direction of George A. Andrus.

This meeting will be the first step by which the Inter-Church Federation intends to show its purpose of promoting both the practical and the theoretical application of the principles of religion. On account of the importance of the meeting services in all the church in the Federation will be suspended on Sunday evening and the congregation of each exhorted to attend the meeting at the Bijou. An invitation has been extended to everyone of every nationality who understands English, to be present.

The country around Rawlins, Wyo., is in a state of panic. Twenty convicts escaped from the state penitentiary in a hiding in the hills. One citizen was shot and one seriously injured in a vain attempt to guard a livery stable from which the prisoners took horses to aid in their flight.

MRS. CATT TO HELP HAWAII

During the short time she was in Honolulu Mrs. Chapman Catt found time to look over the constitution drawn up for the National Woman's Equal Suffrage association of Hawaii and while doing so recommended several amendments. Yesterday afternoon a special meeting of the association was called at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dowsett. The amendments suggested by Mrs. Catt were read to the members, both in English and Hawaiian and it was agreed that they should be adopted.

Mrs. Catt suggested that the constitution be made more simple and several clauses were removed at yesterday's meeting.

As the suffrage association in Hawaii will be unable to send a representative to the convention of the National Woman's Suffrage association in America which will be held on the twenty-seventh or twenty-ninth of November Mrs. Catt consented to represent the women of Hawaii and will ask there, that the Association of Hawaii be made a part of the National Woman's Suffrage association of America. This cannot be done unless there are at least fifty members in this association. At present there are twenty-two active members, four life members and two annual members. The interest here is growing rapidly however and there is no doubt whatever but that the enrollment will number far more than fifty in a very short time.

The next meeting will be held in the early part of November, probably on the fifth. A notice of the time and place will be given later. From now on every meeting will be an important one and it is necessary that all of the members be present.

SWEDISH ARTIST HERE TO PAINT

Bror Kronstrand, perhaps the most eminent artist in Sweden in portrait painting, arrived in Honolulu last night on the Wilhelmina. He brings with him a reputation that has earned him sittings from the wife of the president, social leaders, and statesmen all over the country, and now he comes to Hawaii in his search for beauty.

In his own country Kronstrand has been called to paint King Gustave and many of the members of the Swedish court. In America, besides the portrait of Mrs. Taft, he has painted many of its notable people. On the day before his death Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans gave him two sittings. Mrs. James A. Garfield, the daughters of the secretary of the navy, and many other prominent women have sat for him. In San Francisco one of the many portraits painted by him was that of Miss Lurline Mattson.

Kronstrand will probably remain some time in Honolulu.

STOMACH MISERY JUST VANISHES

No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness After Taking "Pape's Diapiesin"

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapiesin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapiesin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

MISS GOLDEN FOR LIBERTY

Noted Comedienne to Make First Appearance Tomorrow Night

Commencing tomorrow night at the Liberty theater one of the most celebrated American comediennesses will make her first local appearance, and that the performance of this talented artist will be a revelation to the entire English-speaking patrons of the Nuuanu street playhouse is certain. The artist in question is no less a vaudeville celebrity than Miss Martha Golden, and, although the nature of her "act" is entirely different from anything yet offered by the Liberty management, inasmuch as the performer possesses those qualities that place her in the front rank of her profession, Miss Golden will doubtless "make good," especially before a Liberty audience, which has become distinctly different from the usual patrons of the other theaters; in that an act to make good at the Liberty must be wealthy in that quality known in the profession as "class," and this, according to Manager McGreer, Miss Golden has, together with an entire new line of entertainment.

Miss Golden was an interested observer of last night's crowds at the Liberty and remarked that she was pleased with her audience—in the front of the house, but that she expected to be a dismal failure with the gallery.

EMPIRE HAS A PLEASING BILL

For those who take an interest in animated photography, a program is being presented at the Empire theater that should not be missed, four pictures composing this part of the program that are as different in general make-up as it seems would be possible to obtain, while all four subjects possess an unusual amount of interest.

Miss Helen Lewis, who is about as neat and beautiful as any woman that has appeared in a local vaudeville theater, not only delights her audiences with her good looks and winsome smile but possesses a pleasing voice and offers a very acceptable vaudeville turn, the program taken all through, being as good as any that has been seen in Honolulu's "small time" house for some time.

TO APPRAISE MAKIKI LOTS

There is to be a reappraisal of the upper Makiki lots, the first valuation put upon which having caused a nightly anvil course on behalf of the "poor man," who was represented as being placed out of the running for a home in that healthful tract.

Governor Frear has appointed L. C. Ables, chairman, E. L. Schwarzbach and William Savidge as a board of appraisers "to appraise the unsold lots in the Makiki slope tract," as their commission read.

When the board has made its report the lots will probably be offered for sale to "rich man, poor man, beggar man, thief," who has the where-withal to buy them.

Al Kaufman was knocked out by Luther McCarthy in the second round of their bout in New York Kaufman was sent to the floor four times.

The tramp who a few days ago was killed while riding a brake beam near New Orleans has been identified as "A. No. 1—the Hambley"—the best-known and best liked tramp in the country. His remains have been shipped to Cambridge Springs, Pa., where with prize money won for the quickest continental brake beam route, he had purchased a cemetery lot and erected a monument.

San Francisco has refused the offer of the Spring Valley Water Company to sell most of its holdings to the city for $38,500,000.
